STUDENTS' ADDRESSES.

The following is neither a complete list of students nor of their addresses. It is impossible to include these if they never reach the Editor. It is most earnestly requested that any student whose address or name is wrongly given will at once communicate with her. Also will anyone who knows the correct address and present whereabouts of those marked with a question at once write it to the Editor that the gaps may be filled. No difference has been made in the present list between students who do or do not belong to the Association, as it is most desirable that all students should know where to find each other, and should bring in those who from one cause or another are ready to forget the ties which should bind us together.

THE AMBLESIDE CONFERENCE.

It is most regretable that out of the 150 students on the Association books only nineteen have replied as to whether or no they purpose to attend the Conference. It is of course not easy to decide beforehand for certain, but a probability is at least something for organisation and Committee to work upon. It has therefore been found impossible to draw up any formal programme or arrange for definite papers on the given subjects. There will therefore be discussions—if possible opened by one member; and it must be left till the students assemble for the committee to arrange further details. The following will compose the committee:—

Ex-officio.—The Editor, R. A. Pennethorne.
The Treasurer, L. Gray.

Elected.—Miss D. Bernau.
Miss Parish.
Miss E. A. Smith.
Miss Brooks.
Miss E. Wilkinson.
Miss Allen.

It is hoped that all these may be present.

Arrangements as to lodgings, &c., must be made by each student individually.

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME.

1. The need for a Transition Class between II. and III.
Miss Bernau will open the discussion.
2. The Teaching of Scripture. A Paper will be read.
3. The Reports to be issued in P.R.S. Schools.
(Discussion.)
4. Modelled Maps for Geographical Teaching.
Specimens will be supplied by R. A. Pennethorne.
